THE NEED:

Innovation! Everybody desires it but many people are confused on how to achieve it. Innovation rests on creativity and creativity rests on the ability to see things from multiple perspectives, dismantle bias, and build a culture of inclusion and belonging. We are now a global workforce causing many cultures to interconnect and create innovative ideas across cultural lines. Intercultural Creativity™ is needed now more than ever.

THE VOICE:

Genein Letford is an award-winning educator, best-selling author and global speaker on Intercultural Creativity™. She is a leading voice on creating across cultural lines and her 7 Gems of Intercultural Creativity framework is the top training for 2021 and beyond. As a sought after speaker and corporate trainer, she has inspired many employees, leaders and C-Suites to develop their creative abilities while establishing a culture of inclusion and belonging for their teams.
